Morgan & Morgan Firm Bio

Morgan & Morgan is a leading civil trial law firm representing consumers and commercial clients nationwide. With over 800 lawyers, and more than 3,000 non-lawyer employees, Morgan & Morgan is the largest plaintiffs' firm in the nation. Morgan & Morgan maintains over offices throughout the United States. Among its lawyers are former state attorney generals and present and former members of various state legislatures.

Morgan & Morgan has a dedicated Complex Litigation Group staffed with lawyers, paralegals, and retired FBI agents serving as investigators committed to representing consumers in complex litigation, MDL proceedings and class action cases throughout the country. It has achieved many remarkable results in class litigation, including the settlement of In re Black Farmers Discrimination Litigation, no. 08-0511 (D.C. Oct. 27, 2017), where one of its partners served as co-lead. The case resulted in a settlement with the United States Government in the amount of $1.2 billion for African American farmers who had been systematically discriminated against on the basis of race, in violation of the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution, the Equal Credit Opportunity Act, Title VI of the Civil Rights Act, and the Administrative Procedure Act. Morgan & Morgan has assembled a talented team of lawyers:

John A. Yanchunis leads the class action section of the law firm. His practice—which began after completing a two-year clerkship with United States District Judge Carl O. Bue, Jr., S. D. Tex.—has concentrated on complex litigation and spans over 40 years, including consumer class actions for more than two-thirds of that time. As a result of his extensive experience in class litigation, including privacy and data-breach litigation, he regularly lectures nationally and internationally at seminars and symposiums regarding class litigation and privacy litigation.

He has served as lead, co-lead, and class counsel in numerous national class actions, including multi-district litigation, involving a wide range of subjects affecting consumers, including antitrust, defective products, life insurance, annuities, and deceptive and unfair acts and practices. In 2014, he was recognized by the National Law Journal as a trailblazer in the area of privacy litigation, and in 2020, he was recognized by LAW 360 for the second year in a row as one of 4 MVPs in the United States in the area of privacy and cyber security litigation. For his work in the area of privacy litigation, he was awarded lawyer of the year in the state of Florida by The Daily Business Review.

As a result of his experience in insurance and complex litigation, beginning in 2005, he was selected by Tom Gallagher, the Chief Financial Officer for the state of Florida and a member of the Florida Cabinet, to serve as lead counsel for the Florida Department of Financial Services and the Florida Department of Insurance Regulation (the insurance regulators of Florida) in their investigations of the insurance industry on issues concerning possible antitrust activity and other possible unlawful activities regarding the payment of undisclosed compensation to insurance brokers. He served as lead regulator counsel and worked with a core group of state Attorneys General from the National Association of Attorneys General, which were selected to conduct the investigations. The insurance regulator for Florida was the only insurance regulator in the group. The litigation that was filed and the related investigations netted millions of dollars in restitution for Florida consumers and resulted in significant changes in the way commercial insurance is sold in Florida and across the country.

During his career, he has tried numerous cases in state and federal courts, including one of the largest and longest insurance coverage cases in U.S. history, which was filed in 1991 by the Celotex Corporation and its subsidiary, Carey Canada, Inc. During the seventeen years the case pended, he served as lead counsel for several insurance companies, regarding coverage for asbestos and environmental claims. The case was tried in three phases over several years beginning in 1992. He was also lead counsel for these parties in the subsequent appeals that followed a judgment in favor of his clients.

Mr. Yanchunis began his work in privacy litigation in 1999 with the filing of In re Doubleclick Inc. Privacy Litigation, 154 F. Supp. 2d 497 (S.D.N.Y. 2001), alleging privacy violations based on the placement of cookies on hard drives of internet users. Beginning in 2003, he served as co-Lead Counsel in the successful prosecution and settlement of privacy class action cases involving the protection of privacy rights of more than 200 million consumers under the Driver's Protection Privacy Act (DPPA) against the world's largest data and information brokers, including Experian, R.L. Polk, Acxiom, and Reed Elsevier (which owns Lexis/Nexis). See Fresco v. Automotive Directions, Inc., No. 03-61063-JEM (S.D. Fla.), and Fresco v. R.L. Polk, No. 07-cv-60695-JEM (S.D. Fla.). Subsequently, I also served as co-Lead Counsel in the DPPA class cases, Davis v. Bank of America, No. 05-cv-80806 (S.D. Fla.) ($10 million class settlement), and Kehoe v. Fidelity Fed. Bank and Trust, No. 03-cv-80593 (S.D. Fla.) ($50 million class settlement).

He has been appointed and served in leadership positions a number of multidistrict litigation in the area of privacy and data breaches: In re: Capital One Consumer Data Security Breach Litigation, No. 1:19-MD-2915-AJT (E.D. Va.) (settlement for $190,000,000 preliminarily approved) In re Yahoo! Inc. Customer Data Security Breach Litigation, No. 5:16-MD-02752-LHK (N.D. Cal.) (“Yahoo”) (Lead Counsel) (Court approved $117,500,000.00 common fund settlement for approximately 194 million US residents and 270,000 Israeli citizens); In re The Home Depot, Inc. Consumer Data Sec. Data Breach Litig., No. 1:14-md-02583-TWT (N.D. Ga.) (co-Lead Counsel) (final judgment entered approving a settlement on behalf of a class of 40 million consumers with total value of $29,025,000); In Re: Equifax, Inc. Customer Data Security Breach Litigation, 1:17-md-2800-TWT (N.D. Ga.) (member of the Plaintiffs’ Steering Committee) (final judgment entered approving $380.5 million fund for 145 million consumers); In re: U.S. Office of Personnel Management Data Security Breach Litigation, 1:15-mc-01394-ABJ (D.D.C.) (“OPM”) (member of the Executive Committee) (motion for preliminary approval of a $60,000,000 common fund); In re Target Corp. Customer Data Sec. Breach Litig., MDL No. 2522 (D. Minn.) (Executive Committee member) (final judgment approving a settlement on behalf of a class of approximately 100 million consumers).

His court-appointed leadership experience in non-MDL, data breach class actions is likewise significant, and to just name a few : Schmidt, et al., v. Facebook, Inc., No. 3:18-cv-05982 (N.D. Cal.) (Co-Lead Counsel) (“Facebook”) (class certified for 8 million residents , subsequently settlement of the class was approved by the court); Walters v. Kimpton Hotel & Restaurant, No. 3:16-cv-05387 (N.D. Cal.) (“Kimpton”) (Lead Counsel) (class action settlement final approval order entered July 11, 2019); and *In re: Arby’s Restaurant Group, Inc. (final approval of class action settlement entered September 23, 2019); Nelson v. Roadrunner Transportation Systems, Inc., 18-cv-7400 (N.D. Ill.) (final approval of class action settlement entered September 15, 2020).

His experience in these major data breach matters extends far beyond simply briefing threshold issues and negotiating settlements. Rather, he has personally deposed dozens of corporate representatives, software engineers, cyber professionals and CISOs in major data breach cases such as Capital One, Yahoo, Kimpton, and Facebook. In addition, he has defended experts used in these cases and also deposed defense liability and damage experts.

Presently he leads his firm’s efforts in two major class cases pending against Google for data misuse.

As result of his experience in the area of class litigation and ethics, he has served as an expert for The Florida Bar on ethical issues arising in class action litigation. He is a frequent lecturer on privacy and class litigation nationally and internationally, including at international conferences, having presented at the University of Haifa's 2019 Class Action Conference, in Haifa, Israel, attended by lawyers, judges and law professors from around the world.
